

Shout!

Open doors, big wide world just waiting for some healing.
Stretch your hands, grab a friend, use what you got to break the ceiling.
You don't gotta preach to have meaning.
Live His word, sharing that good feeling!

From the ground to the sky,
Give your self, lift your spirit high and shout!
So that they know what we're all about, and shout!
Let our actions speak, help those in need.
We're defined by the way we live our lives.
Let's live out loud, come on and shout!

Words are strong and powerful they are.
We share His truths what we believe in but without action to support,
What we say will have no meaning so let's shout it out.
Without saying much, lead by example increase the lives you touch.
You don't gotta preach to have meaning.
Live His word, sharing that good feeling!

From the ground to the sky,
Give your self, lift your spirit high and shout!
So that they know what we're all about, and shout!
Let our actions speak, help those in need
We're defined by the way we live our lives.
Let's live out loud, come on and shout!

Bridge:

From the mountain, to the river,
Sound the call out reach out further.
Through the canyon 'cross vast meadows.
Let our movement create echos.
From the ground to the sky,
Give yourself, lift your spirit high and shout!

So that they know what we're all about, and shout!
Let our actions speak, help those in need.
We're defined by the way we live our lives.
Let's live out loud, come on and shout!

So that they know what we're all about, and shout!
Let our actions speak, help those in need.
We're defined by the way we live our lives.
Let's live out loud, come on and shout!
