

Morning Prayer -- 1

Opening Reflection Song: Take, Lord, Receive (St. Louis Jesuits)

Love can take many hearts and make them one, uniting them in the love of God: it makes them open, friendly, peaceful, one in mind and heart; it makes them capable of learning the will of God. St. Paul of the Cross

Morning Psalm 146

Praise the Lord, O my soul.
I will praise the Lord all my life;
I will sing praise to my God while I live

Praise the Lord,
my mind and memory,
my thoughts and deeds of this day.
I will praise the Lord wherever I go;
I will sing praise,
for the Lord is good.

Praise the Lord,
strangers and friends;
let us praise him for he loves us;
let us sing praise to our God while we live.

Glory to the Father. . .

Reading: Love is patient; love is kind. Love is not jealous, it does not put on airs, it is not snobbish. Love is never rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not prone to anger; neither does it brood over injuries. Love does not rejoice in what is wrong but rejoices with the truth. There is no limit to love's forbearance, to its trust, its hope, its power to endure.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

Reflection

Intercessions:

Blessed are you, Creator of heaven and earth,

--you made the world and offer it life.

Remember us as we begin our work,

--that we work in harmony with others.

May we do what is useful for our brothers and sisters,

--and together build a world that is pleasing to you.

To us and all whom we meet today,

--give your joy and peace.

Our Father

Live, Jesus, In Our Hearts ...Forever
