

Together

We come together in the faith, let us share in unity
The gift to grow as we should, in brotherhood, you and me.

We are seeds, scattered and sown, growing up into the unknown.
Feels as if we're disconnected growing alone.
Little do we know that beneath our roots grip the earth,
Interweaving into a beautiful tapestry

We come together in the faith, let us share in unity
The gift to grow as we should, in brotherhood, you and me.

We are pieces of the mural incomplete until we fill our place
Independent we thrive, but in dependence we survive
All living parts of the body of Christ

We come together in the faith, let us share in unity
The gift to grow as we should, in brotherhood, you and me.

I will be . . . I will be forever faithful
I will be . . . I will be forever faithful
I will be . . . I will be forever faithful
I will be . . . I will be forever faithful

We come together in the faith, let us share in unity
The gift to grow as we should, in brotherhood, you and me.
