

Worthy

Sometimes I feel I'm losing my voice,
Drowned out by the crowd, muted into the void.
What is my purpose, am I serving a greater call?
I offer my song up, for You I am giving my all.

I am called to raise my voice, let it echo 'coss the world.
Raise it up above the noise, send His message live the word.
This gives us cause to celebrate
For I was made to give Him praise.
So with one voice we will always say, I'm worthy.

Eyes fixed, to the horizon where the sky meets the sea.
A perfect reflection of the earth and eternity.
I am a reflection of the love He gave to me.
So let's carry His message, let it shine for all to see!

I am called to raise my voice, let it echo 'coss the world.
Raise it up above the noise, send His message live the word.
This gives us cause to celebrate
For I was made to give Him praise,
So with one voice we will always say, I'm worthy.

Bridge:

I sing it out, I shout it out.
He made me worthy!

I sing it out, I shout it out.
He made me worthy!

I am called to raise my voice, let it echo 'coss the world.
Raise it up above the noise, send His message live the word.
This gives us cause to celebrate
For I was made to give Him praise,
So with one voice we will always say, I'm worthy.

So with one voice we will always say, I'm worthy.
